

San Fernando Pastoral Region

ST. BERNARD SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

Chelsea Lingao, pictured on brochure cover, 2nd grade.

ST. BERNARD SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“Others respect you as you respect them. Sharing makes me feel happy and relieved that I get to share. I know it helps other people if you share: You get to help make our world a better place.” Ashley Bates

ST. BERNARD SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“Sharing feels kind of tingly and nice. If you’re giving money to Together in Mission, it will change your life because it will help people everywhere around the archdiocese. People can give a piece of their fortune so they can have a better life.” Matthew Villanueva

San Fernando Pastoral Region

ST. BERNARD SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“If we’re going to be Catholic, we have to remember the school should be open to everybody and not make it about money. Our Together in Mission subsidy and parish support allows us to keep tuition at a price that doesn’t scare people off. “Thank you, Together in Mission.” Meg Samaniego

ST. BERNARD SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“Gratitude means that you should be thankful for what you have and not thinking of what you don’t have. Give to Together in Mission because you’re being a very helpful person to the community: This is your Church, so you can help it be better.” Alex Sanchez

HOLY REDEEMER PARISH, MONTROSE

“If you are going to participate in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and be an active Catholic, this is one of our obligations. Make a gift to an organization you can actually go to and see what your donation is doing. I’m strong proponent of Catholic education.” Trish Swords and her son

San Fernando Pastoral Region

HOLY REDEEMER Y ST. JAMES
DE LESS PARISHES

“Together in Mission is the most Catholic collection I’ve ever been part of. Together in Mission supports mission activity right here in our own diocese. For parishes that contribute, this appeal mirrors Christ’s sacrifice and generosity.” Father Ed Dover

HOLY REDEEMER PARISH,
MONTROSE

“Together in Mission is part of what Jesus call us to do. Jesus constantly tells us to get rid of the stuff and follow him. If we’re willing to give so that others can live, we’re truly living the Gospel.” Mary Ann Brooks

HOLY REDEEMER PARISH,
MONTROSE

“The Catholic Church does a really good job of getting money where it needs to be. Be confident it’s going to go to the right people, the neediest among us.” Pam and Rick Lengua