

San Pedro Pastoral Region

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“God sacrificed his son for our lives, and sometimes we have to sacrifice for the lives of others. Follow in Jesus’ footsteps: Even if someone is different, treat them like a friend. It’s good to share: You should do from within and not expect anything back.” Jonathan Zepeda

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

Kathryn Lillis, 3rd grade teacher, pictured on San Pedro Pastoral Region brochure cover.

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“We do struggle to survive each month. We absolutely would not be able to survive without Together in Mission. This is why we’re open: through the generosity of people in other parishes.” Nicole Johnson, Principal

San Pedro Pastoral Region

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“God loves us; and we’re his children. Some people don’t have much, and you have to share with them. When you share, it feels like you’re making people happy; and that makes me happy. I would like to change the world and make it better.”
Natalie Garibay

ST. ALOYSIUS GONZAGA
SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES

“Jesus never judged people by the way they looked: It’s not about the color or how they look, it’s about what’s on the inside. If you have something and the other person doesn’t have anything, it’s the right thing to share. To share feels good inside.” Marco Heras

HOLY FAMILY PARISH,
ARTESIA

“Together in Mission is great. Everybody can be moved to pity, but Together in Mission is not just pity; it’s action. It’s not the scale or magnitude of giving, but it’s really giving from the heart then we can be imitators of Christ. It’s discipleship in action.” Father Raymond Decipeda